44		EXTEMPORE RULING

- 1 This is the hearing of the Winding Up Petition presented to the Court on the 24th
 2 February 2014 for Wimbledon Financing Fund Ltd. ("the Company") to be wound
 3 up in accordance with s.92(d) and or (e) of the Companies Law (2013 Revision).
 4 2. On the 25th March 2014 I made an order for directions, inter alia, for service of the

 - 2. On the 25th March 2014 I made an order for directions, inter alia, for service of the Petition on the shareholders and creditors of the Company and on CIMA. I further ordered that the petition be advertised in the Cayman Islands and in the Wall Street Journal not less than seven (7) days prior to the hearing date of the petition. I note from the affidavits of Rozlyn Glanfield, dated the 30th April 2014, and Melissa Solomon, dated the 12th March 2014, that there has been compliance with these directions.
 - 3. Counsel for the Petitioners, Kyle Broadhurst, has confirmed that no evidence has been filed by the Company to challenge the Petition and no other party has come forward to challenge the hearing of the Petition to date.
 - 4. I note that both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Homer have filed affidavits confirming that they are qualified insolvency practitioners as defined by Regulation 5 of the Insolvency Practitioners' Regulations 2010.
 - From my reading of Mr. Kellerman's affidavit it is apparent that the Company has permanently suspended redemptions and its ability to accept new subscriptions has also been permanently terminated. Mr. Kellerman's affidavit makes it clear that the Company's object of investing in investment pools managed by investment managers is no longer possible. Furthermore the Company is no longer carrying on investment business in accordance with the reasonable expectations of its participating shareholders.

1	6.	I agree with Mr. Broadhurst that the foregoing facts alone justify the Court
2		exercising its discretion to wind up the Company.
3	7.	Accordingly, I follow the now long established dicta of Henderson J. In the matter
4		of Philadelphia Alternative Asset Fund Limited ¹ where he held
5 6 7		"As the substratum of the company had gone, the petitioners were entitled to a winding-up order even if it were contrary to the wishes of the majority of shareholders or creditors."
9	8.	Henderson J's Judgment in Philadelphia has been followed by the Grand Court in
10		Lancelot Investors Fund ² , Re Belmont Limited ³ and in several other Grand Court
11		decisions.
12	9.	Accordingly, following Henderson J's decision in Philadelphia , I find that, as there
13		has been a loss of the substratum of the Company the Petitioners are entitled to a
14		Winding Up Order.
15	10.	In addition, I have the read the letter of Mrs. Johnson-Goring, counsel on behalf of
16		CIMA, dated the 7 th May 2014. It is clear from the contents of Mrs. Johnson-
17		Goring's letter that this matter is of regulatory concern to CIMA. Mrs. Johnson
18		Goring has confirmed that the Fund is in breach of s.8(1) and (2) of the Mutual
19		Funds Law for failure to prepare and submit audited accounts for 2011 and 2012.
20		Furthermore, the Fund is in breach of s.9(1) of the Mutual Funds Law for non-
21		payment of its annual registration fees. I note that although CIMA is not, today, in a

up, CIMA is of the view that there "may be compelling reasons for support of the application of the Petitioners as well as the application for the appointment of the persons nominated for appointment as Official Liquidators." The Court is grateful to Mrs. Johnson-Goring for her attendance today and for this confirmation. 11. In the matter of Heriot African Trade Finance Fund Limited my brother judge, Jones J. addressed the failure to file audited accounts in accordance with the Mutual Funds Law and stated at paragraph 15 on page 11: "In my judgment a continuing failure to file audited financial statements after the statutory deadline, or after the expiry of any extensions of time allowed by CIMA, is a serious matter. It constitutes a criminal offence under section 8(3) of the Mutual Funds Law. A failure to produce financial statements and/or secure an audited opinion in a timely manner "raises a red flag." It is usually indicative of financial difficulties and failings on the part of management. Nor can such a breach of duty be regarded as a purely technical matter because CIMA can, and frequently does, grant extensions of time for good cause". 12. The Court notes that the location of the Company's assets is unknown and the directors have acknowledged that they are unable to take any action as a result of lack of funding. 13. The contents of CIMA's letter and the evidence contained in Mr. Kellerman's affidavit, demonstrate that there is an urgent need for the liquidators to make appropriate investigations to protect the interests of the shareholders and creditors of the Company.	1		position to tender any substantial evidence in support of the grounds for winding
